Ticket Information

The Leeds Festival organisers have given Aberford and District Parish Council an allocation of reduced price tickets, each valid for the duration of the festival including camping (resident ticket price = £65 / normal price = £240). Ticket prices are set by Festival Republic, the festival organisers). These are a way of thanking the residents for their patience for any disruption caused by the event. If more tickets are applied for than allocated, the tickets will be allocated by way of draw from all applications received. The proceeds from the residents' tickets will be used to benefit the parish. Tickets are only for Aberford & District Parish residents, tickets cannot be sold on.

Please note that there are special rules this year for children aged 5-12, details on the application form.
